GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

OPENING VOLUNTARY

SUITE NO.1, COURANTE
KRISTEEN SORRELLS, VIOLA

J.S. BACH

(As the opening voluntary begins, please use the time to center yourself for worship.)

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
And also with you.*

RINGING OF THE BELL

✦ OPENING SENTENCES

*Come to us, Holy God, as we gather before you;
encircle us with your love.
Bless us with your sustaining presence;
surround us with your grace.
Draw us around your living Word,
and bind us to one another as disciples of Christ,
whose Spirit is in our midst.*

FROM THE UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

ANNA GEORGE TRAYNHAM

Please join in reading or singing those parts of the service printed in bold.

✦ When this symbol precedes an element of the service, please rise in body or spirit.

Today's Opening hymn by Charles Wesley derives its opening line from a conversation Wesley had with one of his Moravian friends, Peter Böhler, who is quoted as saying, "Had I a thousand tongues, I would praise him with them all." Wesley's version is certainly more singable! The name of the hymn tune, AZMON, by the German composer Carl Gläser is an example of Gläser's inclination to use fairly obscure Biblical locations for tune names. Azmon appears in Joshua 4 and Numbers 34.

✦ HYMN NO. 610

O FOR A THOUSAND TONGUES TO SING

AZMON

For the younger ones among us:

Before we hear the Bible readings and the sermon, we pray the Prayer for Illumination. We believe that the work of the Holy Spirit brings the words we read, hear and say to life. The Prayer for Illumination reminds us that the Bible was written long ago, but it speaks to us today.

Downstairs in the Washington Street entrance are two quilted Ordinary Time banners created by Alberta Irwin. The designs are adapted from Biblical Blocks by Rosemary Makhan. They were pieced and quilted by Alberta with help from Kitsy Battle and Vicky Norman. The fabrics are Batiks hand dyed in a leaf design. The two hangings are accompanied by a "map" identifying each of the blocks in the pattern.

The Belhar confession was written by the Dutch Reformed Mission Church as a theological challenge to South African apartheid. The 219th General Assembly of the PC(USA) recommended to the presbyteries its inclusion as the first confession from the southern hemisphere to join the current Euro-centric 16th, 17th, and 20th century confessions in our Book of Confessions. As of this summer's General Assembly meeting it has now been accepted by the requisite number of presbyteries and reconfirmed by General Assembly.

✦ CALL TO CONFESSION

STEVE BACON

✦ PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, you made us in your image, with a mind to know you, a heart to love you, and a will to serve you.
But our knowledge is imperfect, our love inconstant, our obedience incomplete.
Day by day, we fail to grow into your likeness.
In your tender love, forgive. . . .

(Silence for personal prayer and reflection.)

✦ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

ADAPTED FROM THE BELHAR CONFESSION

We believe in the triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, who gathers, protects and cares for the church through Word and Spirit. This, God has done since the beginning of the world and will do to the end.

We believe *that unity is, therefore, both a gift and an obligation for the church of Jesus Christ;

that through the working of God's Spirit it is a binding force, yet simultaneously a reality which must be earnestly pursued and sought*

We believe

that God's lifegiving Word and Spirit has conquered the powers of sin and death, and therefore also of irreconciliation and hatred, bitterness and enmity

We believe that God, in a world full of injustice and enmity, is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged that God calls the church to follow him in this; for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry;

that God frees the prisoner and restores sight to the blind;

that God supports the downtrodden, protects the stranger, helps orphans and widows and blocks the path of the ungodly;

that the church as the possession of God must stand where the Lord stands,
namely against injustice and with the wronged;

that in following Christ the church must witness against all the powerful and privileged who selfishly seek their own interests and thus control and harm others.

ALLEGRO SPIRITUOSO IN B FLAT MAJOR

FRANK BRIDGE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The paper lace banners hanging in the front of the sanctuary were designed by Ellen Phillips and cut by the Music and Liturgical Arts Committee. Ellen says this about the banners: "Many people think that Ordinary Time refers to the time of the liturgical year that is not important, but that is not the case at all. It is a time of growth for the church so the liturgical color is green, paralleling (at least in the northern hemisphere) the new life and growth that occurs all around us during these weeks between Easter and Advent. The new banners celebrate God's Abundance. From the birds in the air to the fish in the waters, God has poured out God's goodness to be enjoyed by us all. The banner is crowded with birds and bugs and flowers and fruit and eggplants and eels, living and flourishing as part of God's perfect plan."

Thy British hymn tune KINGSFOLD is named for a village north of Horsham, Sussex. The brilliant English composer Ralph Vaughan Williams was famous for identifying popular folk melodies and harmonizing them in hymn arrangements. The same hymn tune also appears in our hymnal as STAR OF COUNTY DOWN, in reference to a county in Ireland, and is the hymn tune for Canticle of the Turniing.

SUMMER FUN WITH THE EVENTS COMMITTEE

It may be the lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer for the rest of Central Presbyterian, but the Event Committee has been working hard to bring you a slam bang group of events for your summer enjoyment. An Evening at the Callanwolde Jazz on the Lawn, Friday, July 22, 2016 at 7:30 pm. Spend an evening under the stars listening to the great Jazz sounds of Diane Durrett, winner of the Atlanta Blues Festival Award. Come early and bring your own picnic and chairs/blanket event as we will be picnicking and enjoying the show on the lawn. Cost is $20 in advance/$25 at the gate. Click here to sign up so that we know you are joining us. Please buy your own tickets at www.callanwolde.org/event/jazz-on-the-lawn in advance, or if you choose, at the gate.
