Central to Host National Tour Art Exhibit: "We Are All Dreamers"

Central is honored to host a touring public art exhibit called Inside Out Dreamers. On Monday, November 6, a photo booth truck will be parked on Washington Street in front of Central. All people will be invited to have their picture taken. The pictures will be printed in black and white, and they will be posted on the front of the Oglesby building temporarily. The exhibit will be up for two weeks. Central is the official Atlanta location for this nationwide tour, also featured in New York, Chicago, Nashville, Houston, and other cities around the nation. The exhibit is a partnership with Welcome Atlanta and will be installed and removed with no cost to Central.

We hope that many Central members will come have their pictures taken on Monday!

Click here to read more about the exhibit. This event is co-sponsored by Global Mission and Worship, Music, and Fine Arts committees.

On Saturday night before going to bed, turn your clocks back one hour as Daylight Saving Time ends.

2018 Stewardship Season: Make Your Pledge Today

The Stewardship Committee is hard at work! Thank you to those of you who have already pledged. If you have not, please make your pledge before Dedication Sunday on November 12, 2017.

You can pledge on the website here: <https://cpcatlanta.org/stewardship/> or with a paper pledge card, which you should have received in the mail.

Paper pledge cards are also available in the narthex.

Thank you for helping Central continue in gratitude, hospitality, and generosity!

EVENTS & OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE

CENTRAL NIGHT SHELTER

Church is responsible for ten nights throughout the season, and now is the time to fill those dates.

If you are interested in volunteering as part of a group to prepare and serve dinner, prepare sack breakfast and lunch, or spend the night, stop by the CNS table in Tull Hall this Sunday. You may also contact Wills Moore by email or Shelley Parnes by email.

Art Exhibit by Zimbabwe Artists Project Now in Tull Hall Gallery

(Back by popular demand!)

The fabric hangings of the Zimbabwe Artists Project will be on display on October 29 through December. They make wonderful gifts for the upcoming holiday season.

ZAP's Mission: Partnering with Weya artists in strengthening self-sufficiency, building cultural understanding and creating educational opportunities is our mission. We work with women artists (and a few men) from rural Weya in Eastern Zimbabwe, buying art directly from them and selling it to people in the U.S. who are looking for beautiful and meaningful art and who want to support their artistic talents. To learn more about ZAP, visit their website.

All artwork is for sale. Contact Dave VanderMeer dvandermeer@cpcatlanta.org or Sandra McDonald smcdonald@cpcatlanta.org about the cost.

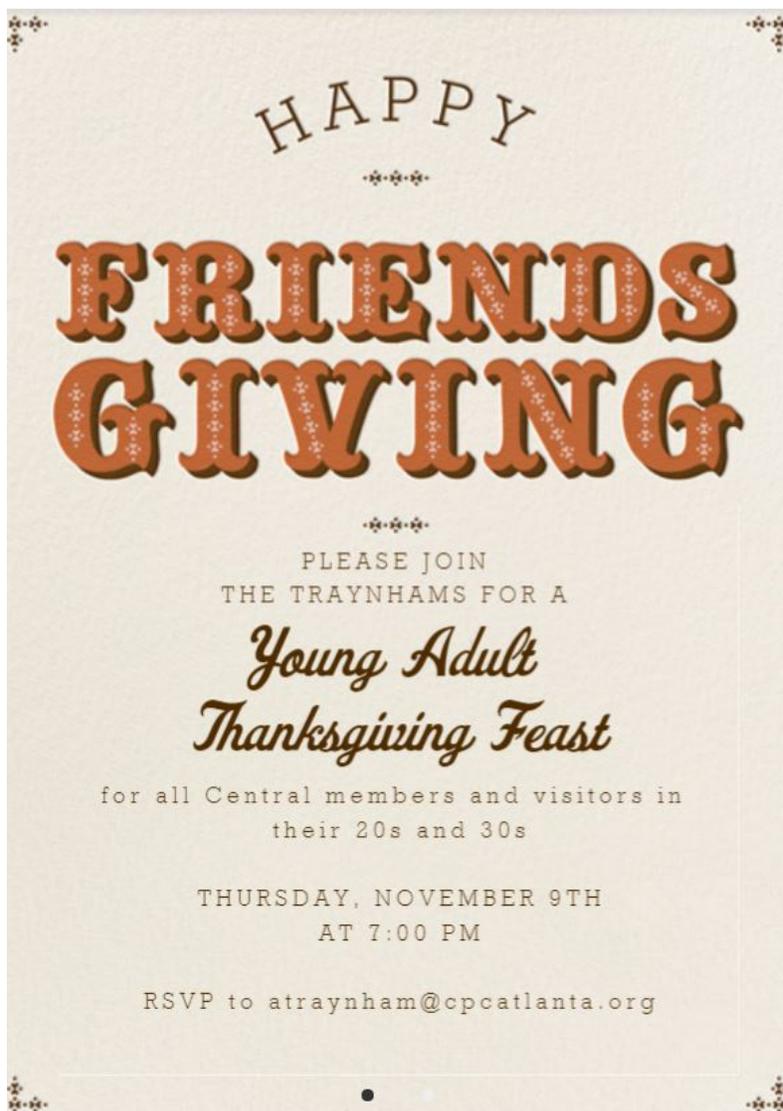

Tuesday November 7 - 7:00 p.m. Rand Chapel

Taizé Prayer Service - including a Service of Wholeness and Healing with the Cancer Ministry and Deacons.

In these troubled days in our nation and our world, come and pray for wholeness and healing in our lives.

All are welcome!

Tuesday, Nov. 7 - 7:00 p.m. in Rand Chapel
6:00 p.m. - Labyrinth for centering prayer in Tull Hall

PRESBYTERIANS FOR A BETTER GEORGIA
GEORGIA LEGISLATIVE
 MONDAY NOVEMBER 13, 7-8:30 PM

Stand with us if you believe the voice of the faith community is important in the public arena. Join Presbyterians for a Better Georgia for the Georgia Legislative Forum, featuring a panel of distinguished state legislators and an early insider preview of the upcoming legislative session. Hear about what's ahead on critical issues affecting healthcare, mental healthcare, affordable housing, homelessness and other priority issues. Learn their insights about how to be an effective advocate.

What happens under the Gold Dome at the Georgia State Capital has a huge impact on our communities- from housing to safety to healthcare. State level issues have a larger impact on citizens than federal laws but receive far less attention. Come meet your local legislators and learn about how you can

There will be a fantastic, bi-partisan panel of state legislators from around Georgia, including:
 Rep. Park Cannon
 Rep. Beth Beskin
 Sen. Steve Henson

Moderated by: David Vigilante, Legal Counsel and Senior VP of CNN, member of Druid Hills Presbyterian Church.

Location: Druid Hills Presbyterian Church,
 Dessert will be served. Free parking is available.

One of Central's small groups open to all, Bookworms, has kicked off its 2017 - 2018 reading year. The group meets the fourth Tuesday of the month at 7:30 p.m. (mostly).

For more information or to get on their mailing list, contact Jean Ellen Jones by email.

Down Yonder Parish

The Down Yonder Parish invites you to join the "Daytime" Book Club in reading Bitter Fruit by Stephen Schlesinger and Stephen Kinzer. It is the story of the American Coup in Guatemala.

The Club will meet once a quarter and was established primarily for people who are not comfortable driving at night but would like to be a part of an intellectual book discussion group. Tentatively, the first meeting will be held Saturday, February 17, 2018 at 11:30am. Anne Sayre who has done significant work in Guatemala will be the guest speaker and will lead the discussion at this inaugural meeting.
