RINGING OF THE BELL

As the tower bell rings, may it call out to the city and the world that Central Presbyterian Church is worshipping God.

✠CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 9:9-11

The Lord is a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.

And those who know your name put their trust in you,

---

✠When this symbol precedes an element of the service, please rise in body or spirit.

Please join in reading or singing those parts of the service printed in bold.

for you, O Lord, have not forsaken those who seek you.

Sing praises to the Lord, who dwells in Zion. Declare his deeds among the peoples

REPTON

✠CALL TO CONFESSION

Jasiel Hernandez Garcia

✠PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of peace and justice,

We confess how the fears we carry have led us to react in unkind and harmful ways towards you and one another.

We confess that the darkness we experience and witness during this storm has made us forget our faith in you and our love for each other.

We confess that we have questioned your grace and your power during this season of change.

Move us from fear to faith, we pray.

Open our eyes to see you in our boat—today,

Strengthen our hearts for the challenges that lie ahead,

Open up the skies and pour out your grace on us like rain.

In the name of Jesus' Christ, our redeemer, we pray. Amen

✠ASSURANCE OF PARDON

✠PASSING OF THE PEACE

Response

Hymn No. 481, stanza 1
Precious Lord, Take my Hand

PRECIOUS LORD

Precious Lord, take my hand;

lead me on, help me stand;

I am tired, I am weak, I am worn.

Through the storm, through the night,

lead me on to the light;

take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

✦ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Christian Antwi

In life and in death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve. We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God. Jesus proclaimed the reign of God: preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed and blessing the children, healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted, eating with outcasts, forgiving sinners, and calling all to repent and believe the gospel. Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition, Jesus was crucified, suffering the depths of human pain and giving his life for the sins of the world. God raised this Jesus from the dead, vindicating his sinless life, breaking the power of sin and evil, delivering us from death to life eternal. With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Christian Antwi

Our Parent, who is among us, holy is your name.
May your reign be a reality here on earth.
May we become more interested in building your kin-dom here and now
Than in waiting for it to come down from above.
Let us share our bread with those who hunger.
Let us learn to forgive as well as to receive forgiveness.
Help us through the time of temptation, delivering us from all evil.
For ours are the eternal blessings that you pour upon the earth.
We are yours. Amen.

Guitar chords do not correspond with keyboard harmony.

This reflection on Christian vocation was written to provide a new text for a pre-existing tune, and the poet has crafted his words so well that the two parts mesh smoothly. The tune is named for a noted British boarding school, whose music director was a friend of the composer.

463 How Firm a Foundation

1 How firm a foun - da - tion, ye saints of the Lord,
 2 "Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dis - mayed,
 3 "When through the deep wa - ters I call thee to go,
 4 "When through fi - ery tri - als thy path - way shall lie,
 5 "The soul that on Je - sus hath leaned for re - pose, is laid for your faith in God's ex - cel - lent Word!

 for I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
 the riv - ers of sor - row shall not o - ver - flow;
 my grace, all suf - fi - cient, shall be thy sup - ply;
 I will not, I will not de - sert to its foes;

What more can be said than to you God hath said,
 I'll strength - en thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand, for I will be near thee, thy trou - bles to bless,
 the flame shall not hurt thee; I on - ly de - sign that soul, though all hell should en - deav - or to shake, to you who for ref - uge to Je - sus have fled?

 up - held by my righ - teous, om - nip - o - tent hand.
 and sanc - ti - fy to thee thy deep - est dis - tress.
 thy dross to con - sume, and thy gold to re - fine.
 I'll nev - er, no, nev - er, no, nev - er for - sake."

It seems odd now to think of singing this text to ADESTE FIDELES, but mainline churches did so well into the 20th century because of a cultural bias against shape note music. The vigor of the present tune seems especially right for the final line's reference to Hebrews 13:5.

Mark 4:35-41

On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, 'Let us go across to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great gale arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, 'Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?' He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Peace! Be still!' Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, 'Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?' And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, 'Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?'

Acting boldly and compassionately to serve people who are hungry, oppressed, imprisoned or poor.
