Ring of the Bell

As the tower bell rings, may it call out to the city and the world that Central Presbyterian Church is worshipping God.

✠ Call to Worship

Susan Landrum

God of all ages, of every generation, we rejoice in your redemptive love!

In you, our ancestors trusted and you delivered them.

God of all people, we praise your vision for a just world.

To you, our ancestors cried and they were saved.

God of all creation, we gather together to tell of your name to present and future generations.

Because of you, we are sustained in hope. Hallelujah! Amen.

✠ When this symbol precedes an element of the service, please rise in body or spirit.
Please silence your phones.

✠ Call to Confession

Susan Landrum

✠ Prayer of Confession

God of grace, you draw us close and hear us when we cry out to you. You are with us in our rejoicing and in our weeping. And yet, we forget this. As we move through the days of our lives, we forget to look to you, to center you. As we center ourselves, we lose sight of our neighbor, we cause harm through both action and inaction, we remain satisfied with the status quo. Help us to center you, to center connectedness and community, to remember and speak out loud, that across time and throughout generations, you are a God of mercy, redemption and justice. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith

Susan Landrum

ADAPTED FROM "A BRIEF STATEMENT OF FAITH"

In life and in death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve. We trust in Jesus Christ, Fully human, fully God. Jesus proclaimed the reign of God: preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed. We trust in God, whom Jesus called Abba, Father. In sovereign love, God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God's image of every race, gender and people, to live as one community. We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life. The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor, and binds us together with all believers in the one body of Christ, the Church.

The Lord's Prayer

Traditional with Inclusive Language

Beloved parent who is in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Visiting Central?

Whether we are together in person or being the body of Christ from afar, Central is a community of faith that offers a great variety of opportunities for you to connect and find a place to belong:

Worship: On Sundays, our in-person worship service takes place at 11 a.m. in the Sanctuary. The service is also live streamed on both YouTube and our website, www.cpcatlanta.org.

Learning: We have multiple classes to connect on Sunday mornings and during the week. Check our website and weekly e-news for updates.

Fellowship: Our fellowship blooms across ministries - children and youth, college and young adults, parents and older adults, and other Central Life Groups that offer meaningful connections.

Service: From serving meals and coffee to our neighbors experiencing homelessness at the courtyard on Sunday mornings to traveling to the U.S.-Mexico border, Israel-Palestine, and Haiti; Central offers opportunities for faithful missionary service and advocacy support in Atlanta and beyond.
