Ringling of the Bell

As the tower bell rings, may it call out to the city and the world that Central Presbyterian Church is worshipping God.

✠ Call to Worship

Rev. Jasiel Hernández García

When the world divides us,
Come, Holy Spirit, make us one!
When the world overwhelms us,
Come, Holy Spirit, breathe new life into us!
When the world leads us astray,
Come, Holy Spirit, guide our hearts with your fiery presence!
When the world says we are not enough,
Come, Holy Spirit, surround us with your love!

✠ Hymn 280

Come, O Spirit, Dwell Among Us

✠ Call to Confession

Rev. Jasiel Hernández García

✠ Prayer of Confession

Loving God, we confess that we have stifled your Spirit within us. You have sent us the Spirit of love, but we have preferred to hate those who oppose us. You have sent us the Spirit of joy, but we have held on to envy, ungratefulness, and greed. You have sent us the Spirit of peace, but we have allowed our selfishness to cause division and disharmony. You have sent us the Spirit of kindness, but we have been indifferent to other people's needs. You have sent us the Spirit of faithfulness, but we have failed to follow your teachings as your disciples. Forgive us, merciful God. Teach us how much we need the power of your Spirit in our lives, and breathe new life into us. In Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

Responding to the Word

 Affirmation of Faith		Christian Antwi
CONFESSION OF 1967, 9.07

In Jesus Christ, God was reconciling the world to himself. We confess that Jesus Christ is God with us. He is the eternal Son of the Father, who became human and lived among us to fulfill the work of reconciliation. He is present in the church by the power of the Holy Spirit to continue and complete his mission. This work of God, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is the foundation of all we confess about God, humanity, and the world. Therefore, the church calls all people to be reconciled to God and to one another.
